FOUR MEMBERS OF A FIGHTING FAMILY
In the center is Edmund Patterson, of 1748 Frankford avenue, the father and a veteran of the Civil War. From left to right are the sons, Charles, Edmund and Jacob. The first named is a fireman aboard the battleship Kansas. His brothers are shipmates aboard the U. S. S. City of Lewis, S. P. 383, holding the positions of fireman and machinist's mate, respectively.

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY'S AMBULANCE UNIT AT ALLENTOWN
The great task of organizing the ambulance corps in training at the upstate city has just been completed. Ninety-eight sections have been formed, with a total membership of approximately 650 men, not figuring those who have come as members of base hospital units.
